Easter in April

Easter Celebration in April Good Friday April 18
Easter Sunday April 20

Easter is the celebration of the Metaphysical nature of the Christ. Jesus showed us the wonder of God's Love flowing to mankind through his act of Divinity. Every Easter, we can feel the great love of Jesus Christ and our connection to God. We are truly the children of God.

We begin our celebration on Good Friday, when we will do our annual Spiritual Communion service. "This do in Remembrance of Me". During this ceremony, our sanctuary is filled with Divine Beings of Love who come to join our hearts with God love. Human, Angel, Masters. We all gather to connect and surrender to God in our hearts and lives.

This service begins at 12 noon and usually is complete by 12:30 to 12:40pm. We will stay in private meditation until 1pm, however, all participants may leave during this meditation as they are guided. The church will be closed for the remainder of the day. The energy is so high, it is a beautiful first step to our Easter Celebration.

Easter Service— God and Man are One. Jesus Christ taught us how to live as God's children, and then took our love back to the Father's house. There he created a space for all where we know a Spiritual union with our Father Mother God. Join us this Easter as we know our oneness and receive the blessing of God's love and Light moving into our reality! Body, Mind and Spirit.

Our Third Stone was Amazonite which allowed a physical healing while we were learning to express our truth.

Our Fourth Stone was Apricot Quartz. This stone gave us joy, warmth, hope and good cheer!

Our Fifth Stone was Shell Jasper which creates a safe space for remaining grounded while connecting with the Divine.

Easter Egg Hunt

All children are invited to join us in an Easter egg hunt, Easter Sunday, April 20 after the service.

This is always so much fun for the kids and the adults! The children love the “run”. The eggs are just a special treat.

David Fuller will be taking the lead in setting everything up so the kids find a well stocked field! And we would love to have you contribute if you can. Please sign up in the foyer and let us know what kind of treats you will be bringing. And there is a second sign up sheet for those children participating.

Please sign up your child so that we know we have enough for everyone.

Laughter lets us see life! Let’s laugh this Easter, grateful for the great gift of Jesus the Christ!

Thoughts of the Ministers

Surrender

We live on one planet, we are one species, and we have come here to Love. Period!

When we surrender to Love we evolve our physical bodies as well as our consciousness. God consciousness.

We all live in varying degrees of awareness and it is through the expression of Love that we can begin to erase the apparent boundaries of separation.

We are all co-creators of this Grand Tapestry of Life—and as each tile in a mosaic is integral to the whole picture, we too are integral to the whole of life.

The times they are changing, more so than ever. Doesn't it seem that every aspect of life is changing before our eyes?

Perhaps the universe is showing us that the time is now to truly understand this concept of oneness, and to now live in this consciousness.

When we shift our point of reference from “Me to We”, we open the door to be able to experience true reality rather than just a concept of oneness.

As our world is changing, we too are being asked to change to release that which isn't for the good of the whole.

We will all begin to know intuitively that what is good for the whole is also good for us.

We all have beliefs, habits and patterns that define our uniqueness, however we are so much more than our thoughts, beliefs and actions.

The simple affirmation “God and I are One” will transport us to a new vision of self and reveal the vision of oneness.

When we remember that God is in us and that we are in God, our manifestation will only be that of Love for all of life.

We are the family of Man and the time is Now to rebuild the bridge of Love and once again live as One.

Eye hath not seen nor ear heard the glory God has for Man - for Us.

Living Love in our daily life to the best of our ability will continue to open our eyes and ears and hearts to the experience of being the Love of God made manifest.

To surrender and know - Love is with us Always

Peace,
Patrick

We are a working Church!

God is Real

My job is so varied. During sessions, I connect people with their Divinity so they can begin to feel God's love within them, guiding them and providing for them. It is an honor to humble my heart and become a channel for my brothers and sisters in the world. And then, I have to do the “rest” of my job.

Planning, writing, channeling— all of the things that I love to do— are performed with the energy of God guiding every detail. I ask. I receive. I accomplish. I even do this when I am looking at the financials of the church. Anything at the church, I expect God to guide.

But, when I get home to do my work— my personal stuff— I expect God to help me as well, but when things become difficult, I begin to wonder what I have done to create the discord. I can feel overwhelmed by the enormous amount of personal tasks that are required in my life. In these moments, I do not feel that I have the inspiration to handle the many details that fall to me. Why is that?

Why are my personal responsibilities not as important as my work at the church? Why do I trust God so completely with all of the Spiritual work and yet can fall into total human responsibility for me?

I used to live one with God so easily. I always included God in my every waking moment. I expected God's love to guide. What changed in me?

I think that when things happen for our growth— things that we did not expect or desire— we forget that God is a part of that experience as well. Instead, we may feel that we are now somehow disconnected, not as valuable. But I am here to tell you that nothing is further from the truth. Those of us who have walked faithfully in love are all the more valuable because we seek God even in the dark of the storm. And as we reach to feel God, we are dragging the whole of humanity with us. Perhaps this is why God may feel far away sometimes. Our inner Christ is strengthening in truth. And as we reach deep within to the God of our hearts, it may be that we are helping others find God as well in the moment. God is with us in each detail.

I think that it is time to realize that I am not separate from the Love I serve. My human cells are just as important to God as my “channeling of information” for others. God's love flows through my mind, my cells, my heart and my body. I am God's Daughter.

Light is not measured by age, accomplishments, or even helping the world find God. Light is measured by the love within and the complete trust and oneness with the purpose of our lives, a purpose that we can only imagine.

On Earth, we can not know the impact of our lights. In the Heavens, we are seen and we are supplied.

Much love to all,
Cindy

Lilies of the Field Poems

The students of our New Testament Class had the assignment of writing a poem about the lilies of the field. Here they are:

Haiku

Lilly fields and birds of sky
Our God spins away
Fear not. We are important.

Juanita Mucha

Observe the lilies dressed in colours so bright
Reflecting God's care by both day and night
Observe the lilies, they neither toil nor spin
Knowing God's got them, from within
The changing conditions, the cold damp mists
Does not stop them sharing their bliss
Trusting the soil, trusting God's light
Knowing that their true mission is
Just to be...joyous and bright.

Peggy Mills

God's Watch Care

I walked through the fields
To listen to God
Wondering what he had to say

The ravens with their black oily feathers
Shimmered in divine light
While the lilies swayed in array

Flying, eating, and resting
The ravens were not burdened by life
The only toil they had to tend was nesting and finding a wife

The lilies turned their face to the sun as their roots intertwined with soil
Mother Earth gave them dew and the nutrients to feed
But there was nothing that caused them to roil

If God feeds the raven and lilies,
And provides them with all that they need
Why do I carry this burden, when God wants to bless me indeed

Rachel Shively

Poem

Why do I worry?
Why do I doubt?
My Father knows-
He has it planned out!

Each breath I take,
A gift to me.
Yet still, I struggle
To believe

But when I pause
And look within,
I see His love-
It's always been

Carrie Krause

The Lilies of My Field

Sometimes I don't know what to do or to think,
The right words to say or decisions to make.
Then I remember whose counsel to seek,
So I take a step back and put on the brakes.

I take some time to sit quiet and still,
To connect with God and tell him how I feel
He tells me not to worry and don't be afraid,
For He is always here to show me the way.

He tells me He will provide all that I need,
So with things in this world I should not take heed
I am so grateful for Gods great love,
and when searching for answers will look up above.

Bonnie Westbrook Our Foundation Stone

You know when someone has been around for so long that you can't remember when they started and their files have been discarded many years ago. That is Bonnie.

We know that she has been our corner stone for over twenty years. She has handled the clients, the bookstore, and the financials. She organized relentlessly the abundance of papers and details that are required to be maintained in running a business. She took care of everything.

Bonnie's presence has allowed Patrick and I to do the spiritual work that God has asked us to do. He brought us Bonnie so that we could build a strong foundation for Inner Quest Church.

Now, Bonnie is making her way to a new adventure. She will be moving to Savannah and will be living near her daughter. March 18 is her last official day with us.

The deep love we have for her and respect for who she is will not waiver. However, the chasm she leaves will be a difficult one to navigate.

Bonnie, it is our prayer that one day you will come to know how many hearts you have touched and how many lives you have helped along the way. You have been our bright and shining light for over twenty years- through it all. You will always be a part of our hearts.

Bonnie, we love you and wish you the most amazing life in your new home. You will be missed more than you can ever know.
